Privacy:

This privacy policy is to provide information to you, our patient, on how your personal information (which includes your health information) is collected and used within our practice, and the circumstances in which we may share it with third parties.

Why and when your consent is necessary

When you register as a patient of our practice, you provide consent for our GPs and practice staff to access and use your personal information so they can provide you with the best possible healthcare. Only staff who need to see your personal information will have access to it. If we need to use your information for anything else, we will seek additional consent from you to do this.

Why do we collect, use, hold and share your personal information?

Our practice will need to collect your personal information to provide healthcare services to you. Our main purpose for collecting, using, holding and sharing your personal information is to manage your health. We also use it for directly related business activities, such as financial claims and payments, practice audits and accreditation, and business processes (eg staff training).

What personal information do we collect?

The information we will collect about you includes your:

- Names, date of birth, addresses, contact details
- Medical information including medical history, medications, allergies, adverse events, immunisations, social history, family history and risk factors
- Medicare number (where available) for identification and claiming purposes
- Healthcare identifiers
- Health fund details.

Dealing with us anonymously

You have the right to deal with us anonymously or under a pseudonym unless it is impracticable for us to do so or unless we are required or authorised by law to only deal with identified individuals.

How do we collect your personal information?

Our practice may collect your personal information in several different ways.

- When you make your first appointment our practice staff will collect your personal and demographic information via your registration.
- During the course of providing medical services, we may collect further personal information.
- We may also collect your personal information when you telephone us, or make an online appointment.
- In some circumstances personal information may also be collected from other sources. Often this is because it is not practical or reasonable to collect it from you directly. This may include information from:
 - Your guardian or responsible person
 - Other involved healthcare providers, such as specialists, allied health professionals, hospitals, community health services and pathology and diagnostic imaging services

- Your health fund, Medicare, or the Department of Veterans' Affairs (as necessary).

When, why and with whom do we share your personal information?

We sometimes share your personal information:

- With third parties who work with our practice for business purposes, such as accreditation agencies or information technology providers – these third parties are required to comply with APPs and this policy
- With third parties who work with our practice for booking and recall purposes, such as HotDoc, who must also comply with this policy
- With national registers administered by The Australian Government Department of Health, such as AIR which records details of vaccinations given to people in Australia
- With other healthcare providers
- When it is required or authorised by law (eg court subpoenas)
- When it is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious threat to a patient's life, health or safety or public health or safety, or it is impractical to obtain the patient's consent
- To assist in locating a missing person
- To establish, exercise or defend an equitable claim
- For the purpose of confidential dispute resolution process
- When there is a statutory requirement to share certain personal information (eg some diseases require mandatory notification)

Only people who need to access your information will be able to do so. Other than in the course of providing medical services or as otherwise described in this policy, our practice will not share personal information with any third party without your consent.

We will not share your personal information with anyone outside Australia. (Unless under exceptional circumstances that are permitted by law) without your consent.

Any referrals made will only ever include the relevant health information required for this request.

How do we store and protect your personal information?

Your personal information is stored at our practice as an electronic record.

Our practice stores all personal information securely by the use of computer passwords and confidentiality agreements for staff and contractors.

How can you access and correct your personal information at our practice?

You have the right to request access to, and correction of, your personal information.

Our practice acknowledges patients may request access to their medical records. We require you to put this request in writing and our practice will respond within 30 days. In some instances there may be an administrative cost incurred for complying with your request. This fee will not exceed $30.00.

Our practice will take reasonable steps to correct your personal information where the information is not accurate or up to date. From time to time, we will ask you to verify that your personal information held by our practice is correct and current. You may also request that we correct or update your information, and you should make such requests in writing to the Practice Manager, Upper Ferntree Gully Medical Clinic, 5 Dawson Street, Upper Ferntree Gully, Vic. 3156.

How can you lodge a privacy-related complaint, and how will the complaint be handled at our practice?

We take complaints and concerns regarding privacy seriously. You should express any privacy concerns you may have in writing. We will then attempt to resolve it in accordance with our resolution procedure. The practice address is 5 Dawson Street, Upper Ferntree Gully, Vic. 3156. All correspondence will be responded to within 30 days.

You may also contact the OAIC. Generally, the OAIC will require you to give them time to respond before they will investigate. For further information visit www.oaic.gov.au or call the OAIC on 1300 363 992. You may also contact the Health Services Commissioner, 26th Floor, 570 Bourke Street, Melbourne, 3000, or by telephone on 1300 582 113.

Skin Check Appointments

If you undergo a skin check at Eastern Skin Cancer Clinic, the doctor will examine the skin on the face, neck, arms, legs, torso, fingers, toes and on the soles of the feet and palms of the hands. For this to be conducted you will need to remove all clothing except for undergarments. Skin cancers can occur in areas which are not exposed, so please inform the doctor if you have any hidden lesion you would like checked. Digital images will usually be taken of your skin, for diagnostic purposes, and for future comparison. In this case, images taken will be stored in a secure online facility with Australia using DermEngine software.

Policy review statement

This privacy policy will be reviewed annually to ensure it is in accordance with any changes that may occur. Updated versions of the policy will be available in our waiting room, and on our website.

Contacting our Clinics:

For all appointments, results and general enquiries, etc. please contact us by telephone:
